Gabrielle Trebat, Senior Managing Director, leads McLarty Associates' Brazil & Southern Cone practice and is based in Washington, DC.

A dual national of Brazil and the U.S., Gabrielle brings over 20 years of experience working with governments across Latin America to promote opportunities for increased trade and investment. At McLarty Associates, Gabrielle has helped dozens of multinational firms evaluate potential acquisitions in Brazil, Argentina, and Chile, including assessing regulatory, political, and economic risks. She also has deep expertise providing support to companies post-acquisition to build their government relations functions and advance on policy objectives to maximize business opportunities and mitigate risks.

Prior to joining MA in 2011, Gabrielle served as Deputy Assistant Secretary for Business Affairs and Public Liaison at the U.S. Department of Treasury, where she managed Treasury's strategic engagement with the private sector, labor, and NGO communities on a range of priorities. She previously served as Executive Director of the Brazil-U.S. Business Council at the U.S. Chamber of Commerce, where she was responsible for promoting the bilateral trade and investment relationship representing the interests of foreign direct investors in Brazil. At the Council on Competitiveness from 2001-2007, she served as Director of the Global Program where she managed the global institutional partnerships of the Council across Latin America, Europe and Japan. Gabrielle previously worked for Senator Joseph Lieberman of Connecticut.

She currently serves on the Board of Directors of the Brazilian-American Chamber of Commerce (BACC) and the Advisory Board of the Wilson Center's Latin America Program. She is the Co-Chair of the Western Hemisphere Program of the Association of Women in International Trade (WIIT). She represents McLarty Associates on the Board of Directors of the Brazil-U.S. Business Council.
