

Angeline Thangaperakasam

Regional Director, Southeast Asia

900 17th St NW, Suite 800 | Washington, DC 20006

Mobile +1 202.500.2272
at@maglobal.com

Education

BA, National University of Singapore

Languages

Tamil
English
Basic Malay

Angeline Thangaperakasam, Regional Director, advises clients throughout Southeast Asia.

She returned to McLarty Associates in 2015 after serving as a Senior Associate at the firm in 2011-2012, advising clients on matters in East and Southeast Asia. She started her career as a foreign service officer in the Singapore Ministry of Foreign Affairs. There she held a variety of roles, including Desk Officer for Europe, serving at the Singaporean Embassy in Manila, and handling international visits and protocol matters.

Angeline was also a Manager at the US-ASEAN Business Council in Washington, DC, where she monitored, analyzed, and updated Council members on economic and political developments in the Philippines and Singapore, as well as region-wide defense and security matters. Angeline served as a Program Associate with the Asia Society India Centre in Mumbai, where she monitored and developed programming around political, economic, and cultural trends for a wide commercial and policy audience in Mumbai.

She has lived in several Southeast Asian cities – namely, Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia; Phnom Penh, Cambodia; Bangkok, Thailand and Manila, Philippines, as well as in Mumbai, India and Kampala, Uganda. She is a graduate of the National University of Singapore.

