Balinder Singh, Senior Advisor, McLarty Associates - co-leads Delhi-based BSAG Consulting Private Limited, our strategic partner for India.

Mr. Singh brings with him 30 years of experience in corporate and public affairs – with deep relationships across a wide swathe of stakeholders. Having worked across sectors, Mr. Singh has engaged virtually every corner of the Indian ecosystem through his work with international and domestic corporations, helping them to navigate one of the world's most complex yet opportune business environments.

He has had success in building coalitions and working with corporations, NGOs, government departments, media and communications agencies. He has worked in cross-functional, remote and international teams both within a single organization and across entities.

Mr. Singh holds a degree in Commerce and has consulted to several Fortune 500 companies and Indian Blue Chips across a diverse set of industries including infrastructure, civil nuclear, insurance and financial services, aviation, telecommunications & IT, consumer goods and hospitality and quick service restaurants.

He has also executed public affairs programs in Sri Lanka. Sustainability and implementation of clean technologies, skills development and healthcare are areas of special interest.
